

DeLand Animal Hospital

The best way to keep your pet and wallet safe from heartworms!

Heartworm Facts:

- They are spread by mosquitoes. And here in Florida Mosquitoes are everywhere, year round and they can even get into your home!
- Each heartworm can grow to 2 feet long!
- Some early signs in dogs: fatigue and exercise intolerance!
- Later signs in dogs: coughing, fluid in lungs and abdomen and even death!
- Even cats can get heartworms! Some symptoms in cats can be: Vomiting, asthma type symptoms or even death!
- Heartworm treatments can be costly and even dangerous: $400 and up is a mild estimate!
- There is no approved treatments for cats!
- Natural or organic preventatives don't exist!
- Products bought over the internet may be counterfeit or improperly labeled!

Your veterinarian can help you choose the best heartworm preventative for your dog or cat and your lifestyle! Please feel free to call and schedule an appointment today! (386)734-1802