List of groups that may offer aid to those in need of assistance with medical care of their pets:

American Animal Hospital Association
www.aahahelpingpets.org

"The heartbreak happens all too often? A pet owner is unable to afford treatment and their sick or injured companion animal pays the price. If the owner is elderly, disabled or on a fixed income, the cost of care may be too much of a stretch for their pocketbook. Perhaps they have been victimized by crime, property loss or a job layoff and are experiencing a temporary financial hardship? Making it too difficult to afford pet care. And some animals, brought to clinics by Good Samaritans, don't have an owner to pay for treatment. Whatever the situation, the fact remains the same: When sick or injured animals are unable to receive veterinary care, they suffer. Through the AAHA Helping Pets Fund, veterinary care is possible for sick or injured pets even if they have been abandoned or if their owner is experiencing financial hardship."

Angels 4 Animals
www.angels4animals.org

"Angels4Animals, a non-profit organization and a program of Inner Voice Community Services, has a mission to serve as the guardian angel of animals whose caretakers find themselves in difficult financial situations. At Angels4Animals we believe that animal owners should not have to say goodbye to the animals that they love. Our work is accomplished in conjunction with veterinary clinics across the country, eager to assist as many animals, and their owners, as possible. Our services range from financial aid to complete treatment to those pets and pet owners in need."

Care Credit
www.carecredit.com

A credit card company for health care, including veterinary care. "Care Credit, the leader in patient/client financing, has helped more than 3 million patients/clients get the treatment or procedures they needed and wanted. With a comprehensive range of plan options, for treatment or procedure fees from $1 to over $25,000, we offer a plan and a low monthly payment to fit comfortably into almost every budget."

Cats in Crisis
www.catsin crisis.org

"Cats in Crisis Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to helping individuals and humane organizations care for cats with chronic or emergency medical conditions through financial and fundraising assistance."

Feline Veterinary Emergency Assistance (FVEAP)
www.fveap.org

"The NEED & The HELP: Seniors, People with disabilities, People who have lost their job, Good Samaritans who rescue a cat or kitten - any of these folks may need financial assistance to save a beloved companion." The Feline Veterinary Emergency Assistance Program is a nonprofit 501 (c)(3) organization that provides financial assistance to cat and kitten guardians who are unable to afford veterinary services to save their companions when life-threatening illness or injury strikes.

Help-A-Pet
www.help-a-pet.org

"Our efforts focus on serving the elderly, the disabled, and the working poor. For lonely seniors, physically/mentally challenged individuals and children of working parents, pets represent much more than a diversion."

Shakespeare Animal Fund

“Anyone can apply for funds, but SAF offers assistance primarily to those on fixed incomes or with annual incomes below $35,000. Exceptions are made depending on circumstances. It is always a one-time grant”

The Pet Fund

thepetfund.com

"The Pet Fund is a registered 501(c) 3 nonprofit association that provides financial assistance to owners of domestic animals who need urgent veterinary care. Often animals are put down or suffer needlessly because their owners cannot afford expensive surgery or emergency vet visits. Companion animal owners must often make the difficult decision to put an animal down or neglect urgent medical needs because of the costs involved. The purpose of the Pet Fund is to work towards a future where decisions about companion animal medical care need never be made on the basis of cost."

United Animal Nations

www.uan.org

"The mission of LifeLine is to help homeless or recently rescued animals suffering from life-threatening conditions that require specific and immediate emergency veterinary care. We strive to serve Good Samaritans and rescue groups who take in sick or injured animals. In certain cases, LifeLine can also assist senior citizens and low-income families pay for immediate emergency veterinary care."

UK Assistance with Veterinary Bills

www.petloversonline.co.uk

"Most of us can cope with the financial commitment involved in the day to day care of our pets. However, how many of us come out in a cold sweat when our pet is ill or injured and we know we have to take it to the vet? Most of us are fortunate enough to be able to afford it but, some of us who love our animals dearly cannot. Unfortunately we do not have a PDSA or a RSPCA Centre within our area, but there are a few charities who may be able to help."

Assistance Dog United Campaign

<http://www.assistedogunitedcampaign.org/index.html>

The Assistance Dog United Campaign (ADUC) is a health and human welfare organization which provides financial assistance to individuals who have the need for an assistance dog but have difficulty in raising the necessary funds and to people and programs whose purpose is to provide assistance dogs to people with disabilities.

Canine Cancer Awareness, Inc

<http://caninecancerawareness.org/>

Canine Cancer Awareness, Inc. is a tax-deductible non-profit organization whose mission is to raise awareness of the prevalence of canine cancer, its effects and the available treatment options.

Help-A-Pet

<http://www.help-a-pet.org/>

Who We Help:

Physically and mentally challenged individuals

Senior citizens

Children of the working poor

For such people, pets provide a vital therapeutic aid to daily living, unconditional emotional attachment, and protection. Unfortunately, it is often those who need their pets most who face the fiercest financial obstacles to providing medical treatment for their beloved companions. Applicants must provide proof of income eligibility.

<http://www.imom.org/>

"Helping people help pets". To better the lives of sick, injured and abused companion animals. We are dedicated to insure that no companion animal has to be euthanized simply because their caretaker is financially challenged.

RUFF

<http://www.ruffrescue.org/>

RUFF volunteers receive numerous phone calls every day from pet owners and rescuers requesting financial assistance. Veterinary care has become extremely costly. This fact has placed many pet owners and rescuers in a situation where it has become financially impossible to provide the medication and surgical care required. RUFF's mission is to provide the financial aid for our sick and injured furry friends that are in desperate need of assistance. We depend solely on donations to help these animals.

The Mosby Foundation

<http://www.themosbyfoundation.org/>

The Mosby Foundation has been established in loving memory of Mosby, a Malamute - Husky mix who was intentionally shot and killed on August 8, 2003. His memory will live forever in our hearts.

As an ALL VOLUNTEER organization, The Mosby Foundation is NOT able to process applications on an emergency basis as one week or more may be needed to process the application. We regret that the availability of time and funds prevent our being able to assist all applicants.

Brown Dog Foundation

<http://www.browndogfoundation.org>

The Magic Bullet Fund helps people who have a dog with cancer but cannot afford treatment costs.

<http://www.magicbulletfund.com>

The Magic Bullet Fund, is a fund that can help owners who have a dog with cancer but can't afford treatment with chemotherapy or surgery by themselves. We have linked to their pages so that owners may look up information relating to the fund, may apply for help, may help the fund by donating or who just have questions about cancer in canines. If you have any questions please feel free to contact them at their website
